

Fairfield School of Business

MBA Leadership

The MBA Leadership course offers executive leadership education and professional career development for individuals with existing management experience. Created and delivered through close consultation and collaboration with employers, the course is designed to ensure that you'll graduate with the leadership skills that organisations need in an ever-changing business environment.

- Awarding Body: Bath Spa University
- Course Duration: 1 years
- Course Type: Full-time
- Fees: please scan QR Code to further details

Scan for more information

 fsb.ac.uk

 01164 670 718

 admissions@fairfield.ac

 Croydon,

 Digbeth

IN PROUD PARTNERSHIP WITH

How will I be assessed?

You're assessed in a variety of methods that may include some or all of the following across the various modules on the course:

- Reports
- Case studies
- Business plans
- Proposals for work-based projects / consultancy project
- Reflective learning, professional career development and work-based experience portfolio
- Project evaluations
- Presentations

Course Modules

Level 7

The MBA Leadership is designed to further develop your understanding of theoretical and practical knowledge and expertise in business, management and leadership. The course enables you to take an international perspective about business, management and leadership to deepen your understanding of the impact of globalisation on business, societies and the environment.

- Leading Change and Innovation
- Governance and Risk Management
- Corporate Financial Management
- Professional Development Portfolio
- Leading, Managing and Developing People
- Strategic Management
- Strategic Marketing
- Project Management
- Leadership Project

Entry Requirements

- Bachelors degree with honours in any subject. Minimum classification 2.2.
- If not a UK degree, ECCTIS (formally NARIC) will be used to establish equivalence to UK degree.
- If degree not delivered in an English majority speaking country, then the applicant will also need to provide an English language test showing an equivalence to IELTS 6.5 (min. 5.5 in each component). Information on the variety of tests we accept can be found here.
- Each applicant will need to provide a 300 word statement of purpose, specifically setting out why they want to do the MBA Leadership and how it will further develop their leadership skills and business and management expertise.
- Minimum of two years professional work experience in a managerial or supervisory role.
- Professional reference required.