

Fairfield School of Business

BSc(Hons) Business Management

with Foundation Year

The course covers practical business and theoretical models which provide a framework and underpinning to enable students to set up in business as an entrepreneur or work in a global conglomerate. Integral to the course is understanding how businesses operate from finance, operations, strategy, innovation and digital practice. While the course is primarily academic and theory based, creative thinking, visual as well as verbal presentation are practiced and fully integrated to provide vital transferable skills.
